The Compassionate Friends of Brevard - Butterfly Release
Saturday, September 29, 2007

Welcome	Caroline Smith
Readings	Linda Freed, Marisol Gollnick
Remarks (after Butterfly Release)	Open to All Parents
Closing	Pastor Richard Handschin

"A butterfly lights beside us like a sunbeam.
And for a brief moment its glory and beauty
belongs to our world.
But then it flies on again,
and though we wish it could have stayed,
we feel so lucky to have seen it."

Today we celebrate life with the release of butterflies in memory of our children, grandchildren and siblings.

The animals which you will be given will emerge from their envelopes and alight on your hand for a moment before flying off.

Butterflies, a symbol of life, and freedom, now representing our children.

When instructed, please open the envelopes and allow the butterfly to emerge on its own.

It may take a few moments for the beautiful creature to adjust to the light and temperature before it flies off.

These animals are natives, will thrive and insure the continuation of their species, keeping memories alive.

I Am Always With You

When I am gone release me, let me go.
I have so many things to see and do,
You mustn't tie yourself to me with too many tears,
But be thankful we had so many good years.

I gave you my love, and you can only guess
How much you've given me in happiness.
I thank you for the love that you have shown,
But now it is time I traveled on alone.

So grieve for me a while, if grieve you must
Then let your grief be comforted by trust
That it is only for a while that we must part,
So treasure the memories within your heart.

I won't be far away for life goes on.
And if you need me, call and I will come.
Though you can't see or touch me, I will be near
And if you listen with your heart, you'll hear
All my love around you soft and clear

And then, when you come this way alone,
I'll greet you with a smile and a "Welcome Home".

(Sharon hands out the butterflies and reads the followings)

As you release this butterfly in honor of me,
Know that I'm with you and will always be.
Hold a hand, say a prayer,
Close your eyes and see me there.
Although you may feel a bit torn apart,
Please know that I'll be forever in your heart.
Now fly away butterfly as high as you can go,
I'm right there with you more than you know.

By Jill haley

Parents will now release their child's/grandchild's/sibling's butterfly
