

BE THE PERSON

By Michael R. O'Hara

Good morning God, Lord I rejoice in another day
Teach me your will, for your purpose that I pray
I count my many blessings, giving thanks to thee
Help me be the person, you created me to be

Today is all we're promised, the moments here at hand
Be in this world, not of this world, all in Gods plan
For all the many blessings, I know they're heaven sent
The peace and joy of the heart, is found and being content

In service we humble ourselves to be and follow Christ
For our Lord has overcome this world, already paid the price
Of Gods Almighty love, his mercy, and by his grace
With open arms he welcomes, waiting to embrace

And to those heavy laden, who worry in distress
Surrender to the cross, for he promises eternal rest
I bow to worship God the father, through his only son
For it is through Jesus Christ, before God you can come

Let me be thy servant, pleasing in your sight
Turn me from the evil, lead me to what is right
For all praise, glory, and honor, let me give to thee
Help me be the person, you created me to be

copyright 2004 Michael R. O'Hara